AMERICANS CLEANING OUT GERM... N DUGOUTS AT CANTIGNY

This remarkable photograph was taken by French photographers in the village of Cantigny, which was captured in a brilliant attack by Americans on May 28. The photo shows the Yankees engaged in cleaning out the German dugouts in the village. A German is shown rushing out of a shell-wrecked, gas-filled underground hiding place, while several of his countrymen, who have already surrendered, watch his flight to the open air.

NEWS of WORLD MARKETS

STOCK OPENING HAS AN IRREGULAR TONE

New York, July 1.—Opening with an irregular tone, today's stock market soon developed a heavy trend, due to recessions of 1611½ points in some of the leaders and speculative issues. United States Steel, Crucible Steel, Baidwin Locomotive, General Motors and Mexican Petroleum were under especial pressure. The selling also embraced metals, tobactors and a few of the inactive specialties.

Chicago, July 1.—Scantiness of stocks available for July delivery tended to strengthen the corn market today, especially as from now steady enlargement of wheat shipments promised to curtail receipts of corn. Initial prices, which varied from unchanged to be lower, with July $1.47% 1.48 and September $1.52½. No Beef Sandwiches for Soldiers Going Through

Dr. C. P. Knight, of the United States public health service stated Monday that he had notified all establishments serving lunches to the soldiers not to serve any more containing sandwiches with any kind of beef in them. In addition to this Dr. Knight stated that he had notified the canteen workers to send him word when they expected to serve the troop trains passing through and he would have government inspectors on hand so that there would be no further trouble concerning the lunches.

Scoreboard Reflections

King Cobb. You may be going back, Tyrus Cobb Tyrus Cobb

Down the weather-beaten track.

Tyrus Cobb,

But right here we want to say
That you won't go far away,
Making seven hits a day,

Tyrus Cobb.

The race for the batting cham-pionship in the American league is not over yet. Cobb got seven hits out of nine times up Sunday.

Incidentally, Cobb's hitting helped the Tigers take two games from Bob Steele allowed the Cards one hit and lost the first same of a double bill on his own wild throw. The Pirates took the second same.

Ray Demmitt hammered out homer in the ninth inning and the Browns defeated the White Sox. Babe Ruth's eleventh home run of the senson, with Shean on base, defeated Washington in the tenth inding.

Ring blanked the Cubs in the first game of a double header and the Reds tied the second game in eleven innings. Every time the Red Sox look around they are reminded of that popular ditty"The Yanks Are Coming."
